Care at Your Fingertips

Airrosti Remote Recovery makes it easy to get the care you need to become pain free again.

Through the app, you'll connect with a licensed Airrosti Provider who will conduct a thorough visual evaluation, provide an accurate diagnosis, and create a custom treatment plan.

The Remote Recovery Kit gives you the tools you need to speed up recovery. Your licensed Airrosti Provider will review the rehab tools and guide you through manual therapy movements.

Access your custom mobility and stability exercises anytime, anywhere through the app. When you need additional help, we've got you covered with unlimited virtual visits and in-app messaging.
